- 1. a. As used in this act:
- "Public entity" means the State, and any county, municipality, district, public authority, public agency, and any other political subdivision or public body in the State.

"Public employee" means an employee of a public entity.

- b. (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2) of this subsection, no public entity or public employee may enter into any agreement to settle a claim or action to which the public entity, or a public employee in his capacity as a public employee, is a party where the public employee asserts the protections of the "Conscientious Employee Protection Act," P.L.1986, c.105 (C.34:19-1 et seq.), if
- (a) such agreement provides that the terms or conditions of the settlement are confidential; or
- (b) the purpose or effect of such agreement is to conceal information relating to any claim or action concerning the public interest.
- (2) A public entity or public employee may enter into an agreement that provides that the terms or conditions of settlement of such a claim or action are confidential if the settlement involves a matter of national security.

2. Any agreement to settle a claim or action in which a public entity, or a public employee in his capacity as a public employee, is a party and where the public employee asserts the protections of the "Conscientious Employee Protection Act," P.L.1986, c.105 (C.34:19-1 et seq.), as set forth in paragraph (1) of subsection b. of section 1 of P.L. , c. (C.)(pending before the Legislature as this bill), shall be considered a public record within the meaning of P.L.1963, c.73 (C.47:1A-1 et seq.) and P.L.2001, c.404 (C.47:1A-5 et al.) except for matters involving national security.

3. 7. This act shall take effect on the 90th day following enactment.

STATEMENT

This bill would bar public entities and public employees from entering into any agreement to settle claims or actions where the public employee asserts the protections of the "Conscientious Employee Protection Act," P.L.1986, c.105 (C.34:19-1 et seq., informally referred to as the "Whistleblower Act"), if: (1) the agreement provides for the terms and conditions to be confidential; or (2) the purpose or the effect of such agreement is to conceal information relating to any claim or action concerning the public interest. The bill provides for an exception for agreements involving matters of national security. Under the bill, such settlement agreements constitute public records under the open public records laws, P.L.1963, c.73 (C.47:1A-1 et seq.) and P.L.2001, c.404 (C.47:1A-5 et al.).

Under current law, set out in P.L.1989, c.336 (C.2A:82-46), the name, address, and identity of a victim of a sex crime or child abuse who was under the age of 18 at the time of the offense shall not appear on the indictment, complaint, or any other public record. The bill specifically provides that the provisions of the bill are not intended to affect this requirement.

The bill would also require the Attorney General to make such agreements publicly available online. The bill would require that a list of the settlement agreements be in a searchable format in a prominent location on the department's website. The information would include: (1) the date the parties entered into the agreement; (2) the names of the parties; (3) a description of the claims; (4) the total amount each party is obligated to pay; and (5) the total amount of compensation for any outside legal counsel.

In addition, the bill provides that any other agreement to settle a claim or action where a public entity is a party would be considered a public record within the meaning of P.L.1963, c.73 (C.47:1A-1 et seq.) and P.L.2001, c.404 (C.47:1A-5 et al.), except for matters involving national security.
