43 forfeited upon the person being found guilty of, or liable for, a 44 violation of P.L.2017, c.189 (C.4:22-17.1 et seq.). Upon a finding that 45 continued possession of the dog, domestic companion animal, or 46 service animal by the owner or other person authorized to have 47 custody or control of the animal poses a threat to the health or safety of

1 the animal, the court shall order that the animal be forfeited, placed in 2 an animal rescue organization facility, shelter, pound, or kennel
 3 operating as a shelter or pound, and made available for adoption.

4 j. A person found guilty of, or liable for, a violation of any

2 The court may consider testimony from the agent or officer who seized 3 the animal and other witnesses as to the condition of the animal when 4 seized and as to the conditions under which the animal or other 5 animals in the household were kept, testimony and evidence as to the 6 veterinary care provided to the animal, expert testimony as to the 21 damages for the reasonable costs of care for the animal for the period 22 the animal is in the custody and care of the animal care agency against 23 the animal's owner or the person from whom the animal was taken, as 24 appropriate. The costs shall be calculated from the date the animal 25 was taken into custody by the enforcement agency or animal care

26 agency, whichever is earlier.

27 (2) If the court determines that the plaintiff has not shown by a

29 ¹【either】¹ for the animal's protection ¹【or for needed medical 30 attention】¹, the court shall not award damages for the reasonable costs

19 issuance of the court order and every 30 days thereafter as required 20 pursuant to subsection ~~1[e.] d.~~¹ of this section, ownership of the 21 animal shall immediately transfer, by operation of law, to the animal

29 costs to the animal care agency as required by the court; provided, 30 however, that an animal care agency may euthanize an animal at any 31 time if a licensed veterinarian makes a written determination that the 32 animal is experiencing intractable and extreme pain and is beyond any 33 reasonable hope of recovery.

34 g. If a person liable for the reasonable costs of care pursuant to 35 this section is found not guilty of the alleged criminal animal cruelty 36 offense that led to the seizure of the animal, and if the person has made 37 timely payments of the reasonable costs of care pursuant to this 38 section, the person shall have the right to immediately repossess the
