29 STATEMENT

30

31 This bill requires the Port Authority of New York and New
32 Jersey (Port Authority) to post information concerning the services
33 available to the victims of human trafficking.

34 Specifically, this information would be posted in a conspicuous
35 manner within the public restrooms of each airport operated by the 36 Port Authority. This information would be developed by the State
37 of New York's Office of Temporary and Disability Assistance or 38 the United States Department of Homeland Security.

39 This bill would not take effect until the State of New York has 40 enacted into law legislation having an identical effect.
