SYNOPSIS

Limits certain provisions in restrictive covenants and limits enforceability of restrictive covenants.

CURRENT VERSION OF TEXT

As introduced.

(Sponsorship Updated As Of: 6/16/2022)

1 AN ACT limiting certain provisions in restrictive covenants and 2 supplementing Title 34 of the Revised Statutes.

3

4 BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State
5 of New Jersey:

6

7 1. The Legislature finds and declares that:

8 a. Post-employment contracts and severance agreements that 9 restrict or prohibit competition, also known as “restrictive 10 covenants,” “covenants not to compete,” “no-poach agreements,” or 11 “non-compete agreements,” impede the development of business in 12 the State by driving skilled workers to other jurisdictions and by 13 requiring businesses to solicit skilled workers from out-of-State.

14 b. These contracts and agreements discourage innovation and 15 production, impose special hardships on employees and specialized 16 professionals who are trained to perform specific jobs, and may 17 constitute restraint of trade and commerce.

18 c. Limiting severance agreements will stimulate New Jersey’s 19 economy by preserving and providing jobs and by providing 20 opportunities for employees to establish new business ventures and 21 new job opportunities in the State.

22

23 2. As used in this act:

24 “Employee” means an individual who works for hire, including 25 an individual employed in a supervisory, managerial, or 26 confidential position.

27 “Employer” means any person, corporation, partnership, 28 individual proprietorship, joint venture, firm, company or other 29 similar legal entity, employs one or more employees, and shall 30 include the State and its instrumentalities and political subdivisions, 31 public corporations, and charitable organizations.

32 “Fringe benefit” means any vacation leave, sick leave, medical 33 insurance plan, disability insurance plan, life insurance plan, 34 pension benefit plan, or any other benefit of economic value, to the 35 extent that the leave, plan, or benefit is paid for in whole or in part 36 by the employer.

37 “Low-wage employee” means an employee whose average 38 weekly earnings, calculated by dividing the employee’s earnings 39 during the period of 12 calendar months immediately preceding the 40 date of termination of employment by 52, or the number of weeks 41 that the employee was actually paid during the 52 week period, are 42 less than the Statewide average weekly remuneration as determined 43 pursuant to paragraph (3) of subsection (c) of paragraph (3) of 44 R.S.43:21-3.

45 “Misconduct” means conduct which is improper, intentional, 46 connected with the individual’s work, within the individual’s 47 control, not a good faith error of judgment or discretion, and is 48 either a deliberate refusal, without good cause, to comply with the

1 employer's lawful and reasonable rules made known to the 2 employee or a deliberate disregard of standards of behavior the 3 employer has a reasonable right to expect, including reasonable 4 safety standards and reasonable standards for a workplace free of 5 drug and substance abuse.

6 "No-poach agreement" means any agreement between employers
7 or between an employer acting as a contractor and any legal person 8 acting as a contractee that restricts or hinders the ability of an 9 employer to contract for the services of a low-wage employee.

10 "Pay" means hourly wages or periodic salary, including tips, 11 regularly paid and nondiscretionary commissions and bonuses, and 12 regularly paid overtime. "Pay" shall not mean fringe benefits.

13 "Restrictive covenant" means an agreement between an 14 employer and an employee arising out of an existing or anticipated 15 employment relationship, or an agreement between an employer and 16 an employee with respect to severance pay, under which the 17 employee or expected employee agrees not to engage in certain 18 specified activities competitive with the employee's employer after 19 the employment relationship has ended.

20 "Trade secrets" has the meaning given in section 2 of the "New 21 Jersey Trade Secrets Act," P.L.2011, c.161 (C.56:15-2).

22

23 3. a. An employer may require or request that an employee 24 enter into a restrictive covenant as a condition of employment or 25 with respect to severance pay as provided in this act. A restrictive 26 covenant is enforceable to the extent that it meets the following 27 requirements:

28 (1) If the agreement is entered into in connection with the 29 commencement of employment, the employer shall disclose the 30 terms of the agreement in writing to the prospective employee by 31 the earlier of a formal offer of employment, or 30 business days 32 before the commencement of the employee's employment or, if the 33 agreement is entered into after commencement of employment, the 34 employer must provide the agreement at least 30 business days 35 before the agreement is to be effective. The agreement shall be 36 signed by the employer and the employee and expressly state that 37 the employee has the right to consult with counsel prior to signing.

38 (2) The agreement shall not be broader than necessary to protect 39 the legitimate business interests of the employer, including the 40 employer's trade secrets or other confidential information that 41 would not otherwise qualify as a trade secret, including sales 42 information, business strategies and plans, customer information, 43 and price information. An agreement may be presumed necessary 44 where the legitimate business interest cannot be adequately 45 protected through an alternative agreement, including but not 46 limited to: an agreement not to solicit or hire employees of the 47 employer; an agreement not to solicit or transact business with

1 customers, clients, referral sources, or vendors of the employer; or a 2 nondisclosure or confidentiality agreement.

3 (3) The agreement may restrict the employee's engaging in 4 activities competitive with the employee's former employer for a 5 period not to exceed 12 months following the date of termination of 6 employment.

7 (4) The agreement shall be reasonable in geographical reach and 8 limited to the geographic areas in which the employee provided 9 services or had a material presence or influence during the two 10 years preceding the date of termination of employment, and shall 11 not prohibit an employee from seeking employment in other states.

12 (5) The agreement shall be reasonable in the scope of proscribed
13 activities in relation to the interests protected and limited to only 14 the specific types of services provided by the employee at any time
15 during the last two years of employment.

16 (6) The agreement shall not penalize an employee for defending 17 against or challenging the validity or enforceability of the covenant.

18 (7) The agreement shall not contain a choice of law provision 19 that would have the effect of avoiding the requirements of this 20 section, if the employee is a resident of or employed in the State at 21 the time of termination of employment and has been for at least 30 22 days immediately preceding the employee's termination of 23 employment.

24 (8) The agreement shall not waive an employee's substantive, 25 procedural and remedial rights provided under this act, any other 26 act or administrative regulation, or under the common law.

27 (9) The agreement shall not restrict an employee from providing 28 a service to a customer or client of the employer, if the employee
29 does not initiate or solicit the customer or client.

30 (10) The agreement shall not be unduly burdensome on the 31 employee, injurious to the public, or inconsistent with public policy.

32 b. An agreement made under this act shall not be enforceable 33 against:

34 (1) an employee who is classified as nonexempt under the 35 federal "Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938" (29 U.S.C. s.201 et 36 seq.);

37 (2) an undergraduate or graduate student that undertakes an 38 internship or otherwise enters into a short-term employment
39 relationship with an employer, whether paid or unpaid, while 40 enrolled in a full-time or part-time undergraduate or graduate
41 educational institution;

42 (3) an apprentice participating in an apprenticeship program
43 registered by the Office of Apprenticeship of the U.S. Department 44 of Labor and meeting the standards established by the office, or 45 registered by a State apprenticeship agency recognized by the 46 office;

47 (4) a seasonal or temporary employee;

1 (5) an employee who has been terminated without a
2 determination of misconduct or laid off by action of the employer;

3 (6) an independent contractor;

4 (7) an employee under the age of 18;

5 (8) a low-wage employee; or

6 (9) an employee whose period of service to an employer is less
7 than one year.

8 c. Not later than 10 days after the termination of an 9 employment relationship, the employer shall notify the employee in 10 writing of the employer's intent to enforce the agreement. If the 11 employer fails to provide that notice, the agreement shall be void.
12 This subsection shall not apply if the employee has been terminated 13 for misconduct.

14 d. During any period after the employment relationship has 15 ended and a covenant under this section is effective, the employer 16 shall pay the employee an amount equal to 100 percent of the pay 17 which the employee would have been entitled for work that would 18 have been performed during the period prescribed under this 19 section, and continues to make whatever benefit contributions 20 would be required in order to maintain the fringe benefits to which 21 the employee would have been entitled for work that would have 22 been performed during the period prescribed under this section. A 23 covenant shall not permit an employer to unilaterally discontinue or 24 otherwise fail or refuse to make the payments except in the event of 25 a breach by the employee. This subsection shall not apply if the 26 employee has been terminated for misconduct.

27 e. Any provision of an agreement established under this section 28 shall be, to the extent it conflicts with this section, void and 29 unenforceable.

30

31 4. a. No-poach agreements are hereby declared to be contrary 32 to public policy and any no-poach agreement shall be void.

33 b. An employee subject to a restrictive covenant or covered by 34 a no-poach agreement under this act may bring a civil action in a 35 court of competent jurisdiction against any employer or person 36 alleged to have violated this act. An employee shall bring any 37 action under this act within two years of the later of:

38 (1) when a prohibited agreement was signed;

39 (2) when the employee learns of the prohibited agreement;

40 (3) when the employment relationship is terminated; or

41 (4) when the employer takes any step to enforce the agreement.

42 The court shall have jurisdiction to void any agreement and to order 43 all appropriate relief, including: enjoining the conduct of any person 44 or employer; ordering payment of liquidated damages; and 45 awarding lost compensation, damages, reasonable attorneys' fees 46 and costs.

47 c. For the purposes of this section, liquidated damages shall be 48 calculated as an amount not more than $10,000.

1 years preceding the date of termination of employment, and may
2 not prohibit an employee from seeking employment in other states.

3 (5) The agreement must be reasonable in the scope of proscribed
4 activities in relation to the interests protected and limited to only
5 the specific types of services provided by the employee at any time
6 during the last two years of employment.

7 (6) The agreement must not penalize an employee for defending
8 against or challenging the validity or enforceability of the covenant.

9 (7) The agreement must not contain a choice of law provision 10 that would have the effect of avoiding the requirements of the bill, 11 if the employee is a resident of or employed in the State at the time 12 of termination of employment and has been for at least 30 days 13 immediately preceding the employee's termination of employment.

14 (8) The agreement must not waive an employee's substantive,
15 procedural and remedial rights provided under the bill, any other act 16 or administrative regulation, or under the common law.

17 (9) The agreement must not restrict an employee from providing 18 a service to a customer or client of the employer, if the employee
19 does not initiate or solicit the customer or client.

20 (10) The agreement may not be unduly burdensome on the 21 employee, injurious to the public, or inconsistent with public policy.

22 The bill also provides that restrictive covenants are not 23 enforceable against:

24 (1) an employee who is classified as nonexempt under the 25 federal "Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938" (29 U.S.C. s.201 et 26 seq.);

27 (2) an undergraduate or graduate student that undertakes an
28 internship or otherwise enters into a short-term employment
29 relationship with an employer, whether paid or unpaid, while
30 enrolled in a full-time or part-time undergraduate or graduate
31 educational institution;

32 (3) an apprentice participating in an apprenticeship program
33 registered by the Office of Apprenticeship of the U.S. Department
34 of Labor and meeting the standards established by the office, or 35 registered by a State apprenticeship agency recognized by the 36 office;

37 (4) a seasonal or temporary employee;

38 (5) an employee that has been terminated without a
39 determination of misconduct or laid off by action of the employer;

40 (6) an independent contractor;

41 (7) an employee under the age of 18;

42 (8) a low-wage employee; or

43 (9) an employee whose period of service to an employer is less
44 than one year.

45 The bill provides that, not later than 10 days after the termination 46 of an employment relationship, the employer must notify the 47 employee in writing of the employer's intent to enforce the 48 agreement. If the employer fails to provide notice, the agreement is

1 void. This requirement does not apply if the employee has been 2 terminated for misconduct.

3 No-poach agreements are agreements that restrict the ability of 4 employers to hire employees. This bill declares all no-poach
5 agreements covering low-wage employees to be contrary to public 6 policy and void.

7 During any period after the employment relationship has ended 8 and a covenant is effective, the employer must pay the employee an 9 amount equal to 100 percent of the pay which the employee would 10 have been entitled for work that would have been performed during 11 the period, and continue to make whatever benefit contributions 12 would be required in order to maintain the fringe benefits to which 13 the employee would have been entitled for work that would have 14 been performed. A covenant does not permit an employer to 15 unilaterally discontinue or otherwise fail or refuse to make the 16 payments except in the event of a breach by the employee. These 17 requirements do not apply if the employee has been terminated for 18 misconduct.

19 An employee subject to a restrictive covenant or covered by a 20 no-poach agreement may bring a civil action in a court of 21 competent jurisdiction against any employer or person alleged to 22 have violated the bill. An employee must bring the action within 23 two years of the later of:

- 24 (1) when a prohibited agreement was signed;
- 25 (2) when the employee learns of the prohibited agreement;
- 26 (3) when the employment relationship is terminated; or
- 27 (4) when the employer takes any step to enforce the agreement.

28 The court has jurisdiction to void any agreement and to order 29 appropriate relief.

30 The bill also requires employers to post a copy of the bill or a 31 summary of its requirements in a prominent place in the work area.
