5 of New Jersey:

6
7 1. Section 1 of P.L.2021, c.496 (C.29:4-13) is amended to read
8 as follows:

9 1. a. (1) Not less than 30 days before a change in control or 10 change in controlling interest or identity, a former hotel employer
11 shall provide the successor hotel employer with a full and accurate
12 list containing the name, address, date of hire, phone number, wage
13 rate, and employment classification of each hotel service employee
14 employed at an affected hotel. At the same time that the former 15 hotel employer provides the list, the former hotel employer shall 16 post the list in a notice to the hotel service employees that also sets 17 forth the rights provided by this section, in the same location and 18 manner that other statutorily required notices to the employees are 19 posted at the affected hotel; provided that if the hotel is not open to 20 the public, the notice shall be transmitted in the same manner as any 21 offer of employment made pursuant to paragraph (2) of this 22 subsection a. The notice shall also be provided to the employees' 23 collective bargaining representative, if any.

24 (2) A successor hotel employer shall, during the hotel service
25 employee retention period, offer each eligible hotel service
26 employee employment for no less than 90 working days under the 27 terms and conditions established by the successor hotel employer, 28 with no reduction of wages or benefits, except that the wage and 29 benefit rates offered and paid for the period may be higher than the 30 rates last paid to the employee by the former hotel employer, and 31 shall not be lower than any rate required by law. The offers shall be 32 made in writing and shall remain open for at least 10 business days
33 from the date of the offer.

34 (3) Except as provided in paragraph (4) of this subsection, an 35 eligible hotel service employee retained pursuant to this section
36 shall not be discharged without cause during the hotel service
37 employee retention period.

38 (4) If at any time during the hotel service employee retention
39 period the successor hotel employer determines that fewer hotel
40 service employees are required than were employed by the former 41 hotel employer, the successor hotel employer shall retain eligible
42 hotel service employees by seniority and experience within each job 43 classification, to the extent the classification exists, and offer to 44 rehire the laid-off employees if the positions are subsequently 45 restored.

46 (5) A successor hotel employer shall retain written verification
47 of each offer of employment made pursuant to paragraph (2) of this

2 of hire, phone number, wage rate, and employment classification of 5 than three years from the date the offer is made.

6 (6) At the end of the hotel service employee retention period,
7 the successor hotel employer shall perform a written performance
8 evaluation for each hotel service employee retained pursuant to this 9 section. If the employee's performance during the retention period 10 is satisfactory, the successor hotel employer shall offer the 11 employee continued employment under the terms and conditions
12 established by the successor hotel employer. A successor hotel
13 employer shall retain the written performance evaluation for no less 14 than three years from the date it is issued.

18 against a former hotel employer or successor hotel employer for any 19 violation of an obligation imposed pursuant to this section.

20 The court shall have authority to order preliminary and 21 permanent equitable relief, including, but not limited to,
22 reinstatement of any employee who has been discharged or not
23 retained in violation of this section. If the court finds that by reason 24 of a violation of any obligation imposed pursuant to subsection b. of 25 this section, a hotel service employee has been discharged or not 26 retained in violation of this section, the court shall award:

27 (1) back pay, and an equal amount as liquidated damages, for 28 each day during which the violation continues, which shall be

46 of control or change in controlling interest or identity, agrees to 47 assume, or to be bound by, the collective bargaining agreement of 48 the former hotel employer until the end of the term of the agreement

1 or the end of hotel service employee retention period, whichever is 2 later, provided that the collective bargaining agreement includes 3 terms and conditions for the discharge or laying off of employees;

4 (2) if there was no existing collective bargaining agreement as 5 described in paragraph (1) of this subsection, any successor hotel
6 employer who agrees, on or before the change of control or change

STATEMENT

21 This bill limits the effects of the law on changes in control of 22 hotels and disruptions of hotel services to hotels with more than 350
23 rooms.

24 Current law requires, in the case of a change in control,
25 controlling interest, or identity of a hotel, the successor hotel
26 employer to offer employment to each eligible hotel service
27 employee, with no reduction of wages or benefits, for a retention
28 period of not less than 90 days.

29 Current law also requires also requires a hotel operator to 30 provide notification to third-party vendors and guests of any 31 services disruption within 24 hours of becoming aware of the 32 disruption, and, in the case of a substantial disruption, to provide 33 guests the right to cancel any agreement for occupancy without 34 penalty.

35 The bill maintains these requirements, but limits the scope of the 36 requirements to hotels with more than 350 rooms.
