PROPOSED AMENDMENT

12

13 Amend Article VIII, Section I, paragraph 3 to read as follows:

14 a. Any citizen and resident of this State now or hereafter
15 honorably discharged or released under honorable circumstances
16 from active service in any branch of the Armed Forces of the United 17 States shall be entitled, annually to a deduction from the amount of 18 any tax bill for taxes on real and personal property, or both,
19 including taxes attributable to a residential unit held by a 20 stockholder in a cooperative or mutual housing corporation in the 21 sum of $250 in each tax year through 2022, or if the amount of any 22 such tax bill shall be less than $250, to a cancellation thereof.
23 Beginning in 2023, the amount of the deduction shall be $300 in 24 2023, $350 in 2024, $400 in 2025, $450 in 2026, and $500 in 2027
25 and in each year thereafter. If the amount of any such tax bill in 26 any year shall be less than the amount of the deduction for that year, 27 the tax bill shall be cancelled. The deduction or cancellation shall 28 not be altered or repealed. Any person hereinabove described who 29 has been or shall be declared by the United States Department of 30 Veterans Affairs, or its successor, to have a service-connected
31 disability, shall be entitled to such further deduction from taxation
32 as from time to time may be provided by law. The surviving spouse
33 of any citizen and resident of this State who has met or shall meet 34 his or her death on active duty in any such service shall be entitled, 35 during her widowhood or his widowerhood, as the case may be, and 36 while a resident of this State, to the deduction or cancellation in this 37 subsection provided for honorably discharged veterans and to such 38 further deduction as from time to time may be provided by law.
39 The surviving spouse of any citizen and resident of this State who 40 has had or shall hereafter have active service in any branch of the 41 Armed Forces of the United States and who died or shall die while 42 on active duty in any branch of the Armed Forces of the United 43 States, or who has been or may hereafter be honorably discharged 44 or released under honorable circumstances from active service in 45 any branch of the Armed Forces of the United States shall be

EXPLANATION – Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in the above bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted in the law.

 Matter underlined thus is new matter.

1 entitled, during her widowhood or his widowerhood, as the case
2 may be, and while a resident of this State, to the deduction or 3 cancellation in this subsection provided for honorably discharged
4 veterans and to such further deductions as from time to time may be 5 provided by law.

6 b. A continuing care retirement community shall receive a 7 veterans' property tax deduction on behalf of eligible veterans. The 8 amount of the property tax deduction shall be the dollar amount of 9 the deduction multiplied by the number of eligible veterans
10 receiving the property tax deduction immediately prior to moving
11 into the continuing care retirement community. A person otherwise 12 eligible for the veterans' deduction who is a resident of a continuing 13 care retirement community shall receive the amount of the 14 deduction to the extent of the share of the taxes assessed against the 15 real property of the continuing care retirement community that is 16 attributable to the unit that the resident occupies. The continuing 17 care retirement community shall provide that amount as a payment 18 or credit to the resident. That payment or credit shall be made to 19 the resident no later than 30 days after the continuing care
20 retirement community receives the property tax bill on which the 21 credit appears. A veterans' property tax deduction shall not be paid
22 on behalf of any eligible veteran who resides in a continuing care
23 retirement community that is property tax-exempt. A resident
24 receiving a payment or credit pursuant to this subsection shall not 25 receive a veterans' property tax deduction on any other residence 26 owned in whole or in part by the resident, or any residence in which 27 the resident's spouse is living.

28 The surviving spouse of any citizen and resident of this State
29 who has met or shall meet his or her death on active duty in any 30 such service shall be entitled, during her widowhood or his 31 widowerhood, as the case may be, and while a resident of this State,
32 to the deduction in this subsection provided for honorably
33 discharged veterans. The surviving spouse of any citizen and 34 resident of this State who has had or shall hereafter have active 35 service in any branch of the Armed Forces of the United States and 36 who died or shall die while on active duty in any branch of the 37 Armed Forces of the United States, or who has been or may 38 hereafter be honorably discharged or released under honorable
39 circumstances from active service in any branch of the Armed 40 Forces of the United States shall be entitled, during her widowhood
41 or his widowerhood, as the case may be, and while a resident of this 42 State, to the deduction in this subsection provided for honorably 43 discharged veterans.

44 (cf: Article VIII, Section I, paragraph 3 amended effective 45 December 3, 2020)

46
47 2. When this proposed amendment to the Constitution is finally 48 agreed to pursuant to Article IX, paragraph 1 of the Constitution, it

1 shall be submitted to the people at the next general election
2 occurring more than three months after the final agreement and 3 shall be published at least once in at least one newspaper of each 4 county designated by the President of the Senate, the Speaker of the 5 General Assembly and the Secretary of State, not less than three 6 months prior to the general election.

8 3. This proposed amendment to the Constitution shall be 9 submitted to the people at that election in the following manner and 10 form:

11 There shall be printed on each official ballot to be used at the 12 general election, the following:

13 a. In every municipality in which voting machines are not used,
14 a legend which shall immediately precede the question as follows:

15 If you favor the proposition printed below make a cross (X), plus 16 (+), or check (✓) in the square opposite the word "Yes." If you are 17 opposed thereto make a cross (X), plus (+) or check (✓) in the 18 square opposite the word "No."

19 b. In every municipality the following question:

	YES	CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO INCREASE THE AMOUNT OF THE PROPERTY TAX DEDUCTION TO VETERANS Do you approve the amendment to Article VIII, Section I, paragraph 3 of the State Constitution, agreed to by the Legislature, that would increase, from $250 to $500 over five years, the amount of the annual property tax deduction to veterans?
	NO	INTERPRETIVE STATEMENT This proposed constitutional amendment would increase the veterans' property tax deduction, beginning in 2023. The amount of the deduction is currently $250. This proposed amendment would increase the amount of the deduction to $300 in 2023, $350 in 2024, $400 in 2025, $450 in 2026, and $500 in 2027 and in each year thereafter. The veterans' property tax deduction was last increased in 1999.
